

Rosie's Pond-erings

Roseville - Fontainebleu Optimist Club

Our Monthly Meeting Is Every Third Monday of the Month * 7:00 PM

Riverside Minor Baseball Center

President's Message

“Hello all, and welcome to a brand new year! 2008 is here at last and we have a few events that are going on: Mixed Scotch Doubles Bowling Tournament, first of the Tri-annual Euchre tournaments, and Tri-Star Basketball! Hope that everyone can make it out to participate or help out, we always need a couple of extra hands. I'm hoping that these events go off without a hitch, and we can get rolling to a good start of this year of 2008, and help to better serve our neighbourhood children en. That's all for now, see you next month!

YIO,
Sam Van Zetten
President 2007-08”

Last Meeting's Highlights

Congratulations to our President Sam who won the prize for winning our name our Newsletter contest. The name she chose was Rosie Pond-erings. Thank you to all our Optimists members who participated in the contest.

Editor's Message

I'm looking forward to a good 2008 as a member of our Roseville- Fontainebleu Optimist Club. Selina, Justin, and I would like to take this time to wish all fellow members of our Optimist Club of Roseville-Fontainebleu Happy New to you and your families. Selina went to the local schools that participated in our club's annual Harvest Coloring Contest and distributed the awards to the winners the week before Christmas.

THE PORCH

A blonde, wanting to earn some extra money, decided to hire herself out as a 'handywoman' and started canvassing a nearby well-to-do neighbourhood. She went to the front door of the first house and asked the owner if he had any odd jobs for her to do.

'Well, I guess I could use somebody to paint my porch,' he said, 'How much will you charge me?'

The blonde quickly responded, 'How about $50?'
The man agreed and told her that the paint and everything she would need was in the garage.

The man's wife, hearing the conversation, said to her husband, 'Does she realize that our porch goes all the way around the house?'

He responded, 'That's a bit cynical, isn't it?' The wife replied, 'You're right. I guess I'm starting to believe all those 'dumb blonde' jokes we've been e-mailed lately.'

A short time later, the blonde came to the door to collect her money. 'You're finished already?' the husband asked.

'Yes,' the blonde replied, 'and I had paint leftover, so I gave it two coats.' Impressed, the man reached into his pocket for the $50 and handed it to her.

'And by the way,' the blonde added, 'it's not a Porch, it's a Lexus'

The Optimist Creed
 Promise Yourself

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person

You meet

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true

To think only the best, to work only for the best and expect only the best

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own
To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future
To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile
To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others
To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
